Texas Migrant Education Program (TMEP) Web Portal

What is the Texas Migrant Education Program (TMEP) Web portal?

The TMEP Web portal provides direct access to resources and tools that support Texas migratory parents, families, and MEP staff. The portal was designed to meet the unique needs of parents and families of migratory children in K-12, to include out-of-school youth (OSY).

How is this portal accessed?

You can visit the site from any device at the following link:

<https://www.txmigrant.net>

Would you like to receive a quarterly newsletter?

As a migratory parent or family member, you have the option to join the TMEP Listserv. You will be asked to provide an email address and the Texas region where you live. The MEP Quarterly Newsletter for Parents and Families will then be sent to your inbox once every three months. Available in English and Spanish, these newsletters provide timely reminders, links to resources, and information to help you support your child's educational needs throughout the year.

If you would like to sign up, scan the QR code below.

What is the Parents and Families section?

In this section of the portal you will find informational videos, checklists, tips, and answers to many commonly asked questions about the Migrant Education Program. Every page in this section of the portal is designed to provide guidance and support to migratory parents and families as you navigate potential challenges to ensure the best possible outcomes for your child.

What is available in the Migrant Education Program Support for Parents and Families section?

The menu in this section includes the following topics:

- How can the MEP support my child in grades kindergarten through grade 12?
- How can the MEP support my child who has dropped out of school?
- How can the MEP prepare my child for after graduation?
- How can I advocate for my child?
- Technology Support for Migratory Families
- Resources for Migratory Families

Each of these topics expands to provide information, resources, and links to other websites.

EDUCATION RESOURCES FOR PARENTS OF K-12 MIGRATORY CHILDREN

What are the Education Resources for Parents of K-12 Migratory Children?

The Education Resources for Parents of K-12 Migratory Children portal provides parents with tools needed to work with your child at home. This portal contains resources that are being developed in phases over the next few years. Most resources are available in both English and Spanish.

What grade levels are currently supported?

Resources are currently available to support migratory children in kindergarten up to twelfth grade, as well as out-of-school youth.

What are the program components?

For grades K-8:

- Parent-friendly mini-lessons aligned with the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) standards
- Tip sheets for parents that explain and demonstrate specific skills with video examples
- Multi-level interactive games for children, designed to reinforce skills practiced in the mini-lessons

For grades 9-12:

- Interactive online modules that review critical content assessed on the End-of-Course Exams for English I and English II
- Students work independently at their own pace
- Parents provide access and encouragement

For out-of-school youth:

- Information and links to free resources that assist with continuing education, workforce training, health, including mental health, and other support services

What are the benefits of using this program?

Allow parents to support children's learning at home.
